Doug. Tibbits A Suicide

BUSINESS REVERSES SAID TO BE CAUSE OF RASH ACT

The body of Douglas D. Tibbits 56 was found early Wednesday morning near the woodshed at his farm home on the south side of Lake Charlevoix. A .22 calibre rifle lay beside the body.

Coroner F. W. McMillan who examined the body at the Stackus funeral home ascribed death due to a self inflicted wound in the head.

Tibbits, who served as state representative of the 29th Senatorial District 1932-40, is believed to have become despondent over business conditions in connection with the operation of his large cherry orchard.

The body was found by Mrs. Tibbits who told police officials that Tibbits had risen and built the fires while she was still asleep. Dr. A. F. Litzenburger was summoned at the time of the discovery of the body about 7 a. m. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Anent Reckless Driving

Rebec-Sweet Post No. 227, American Legion, presented the following communication to th Common Council at their last meeting.

To the City Council,
East Jordan, Michigan.
Gentlemen:

At a recent meeting of our American Legion Post there was a good deal of discussion and considerable concern expressed over the alarming amount of reckless speedy driving of automobiles over the streets of East Jordan.

The American Legion also views with alarm the amount of drinking in automobiles indulged in by minors, and the apparent ease with which these minors are able to procure intoxicating beverages.

The undersigned committee was directed by our Post to present these matters to your attention, in hope that means may be found toward more strict law enforcement.

Respectfully submitted,
Rebec-Sweet Post No. 227

4-H CLUB news

CHARLEVOIX BOY WINS TRIP

Charles Elzinga, Birchwood Ranch, Charlevoix won honors of attending the State 4-H Club Show because of his excellent dairy judging at Gaylord 4-H Club Camp. Charles will attend the State Show with other delegates who have won that honor in various contests held at Gaylord 4-H Club Camp this week. The dates for the State Show are August 26 to 29.

Others in attendance at Gaylord 4-H Club Camp were; from Charlevoix, Evelyn Saunders, Joan Sutton, and Jim Fiedler; from East Jordan, Barbara Braman and Jerry Evans; from Boyine City wee Ann Davison, Joan Mathers and June Johnecheck.

Betty Warner, R. 1, Charlevoix, made a special trip to the camp to give a demonstration. She did a fine job of showing how to make ice box cookies. Her demonstration was judged very good but she cannot attend the State Show because she is too young. Delegates must be 14 years of age so Betty plans to try again next year.

Mrs. Sadie Liskum of Route 3, East Jordan was admitted to the State Service Club in a very pretty candlelighting service. Miss Ann Whiteford of East Jordan made the trip over Thursday to participate in the Style Revue. Very fine programs were arranged for the members throughout the week. Two of the outstanding ones were a Style Revue by Miss Jane Gibbs of the New York office of the Simplicity Pattern Company and magic by a magician, Theodore Glass and his wife of Levering. Mr. Glass is a professional performer now farming in northern Emmet county.

Ed Rebman was in attendance Thursday night to witness the Style Revue and evening program. Home Economics contests were not held at Gaylord Camp this year but will be held on Friday, August 15th. Trips will be awarded to the outstanding judges in Canning, Food Preparation and Clothing. Charlevoix girls enrolled in these projects wishing to go should contact Miss Emma Fero, Charlevoix Home Demonstration Agent.

Karl C. Festerling,
District Club Agent.

Rather warm this week — what? Do you recall that warm week we had in July, 1936? On the 13th it was 103, the 12th 101, the 11th 100, and 99 on the 10th, 9th, 8th and 7th. So cheer up — it's cooler now.

We had 2.64 in. of rain in July, which is 14/100 inches plus for a 20 year average. Nearly all sections of the State, and nearly all crops, are now asking for rain.

MARRIAGE

VanDeventer — Fielstra

The Vance Mission was the scene of a very pretty wedding Friday evening, July 25, at 8:00 o'clock, when Miss Arlen VanDeventer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanDeventer, became the bride of Edward Fielstra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harm Fielstra of Ellsworth. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Lyzerga before baskets of roses and snap dragons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin, with high neckline, long sleeves, and long veil held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Doris VanDeventer, whose gown was pink net over satin with a short pink veil held in place by flowers. Her bouquet was pink roses and carnations.

Gerald Fielstra was his brothers best man and Don Senneker and Harry Bergsma served as ushers.

Miss Iris Petrie sang "Always" accompanied by Miss Margaret Blossie who also played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride's mother wore a green ensemble with a corsage of pink roses and white carnations. Mrs. Fielstra chose a green print gown and a corsage of pink roses and carnations.

The bride's table was centered by a lovely three-tiered wdding cake with candles on either side.

Ice cream and cake were served to a large number of relatives and frinds. Many lovely gifts were received by the happy couple who left immediately on a short honeymoon after which they will be at home to their friends in Ellsworth.

Out of town guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Easter and family of Adrian.

Now A Deputy To Secretary of State

He has now been appointed an investigator for the Michigan Department of State for Lenawee County. His field is gas tax and motor vehicles violations.

Ask Increase In Phone Rates

MICHIGAN BELL OFFERS NEW TYPE EXTENDED SERVICE TO CHARLEVOIX COUNTY

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company has revealed that it will petition the Michigan Public Service Commission the latter part of August for a $10,400,000 annual increase in rates.

C. L. Johnson, manager for the company, said the proposed rate increase would be applied to every exchange in Michigan Bell territory a virtually every type of service in order that "the increased costs of doing business be shared by all telephone users."

While asking for a rate increase, the company will propose a new type of extended-area service that will permit users to call nearby exchanges "with the same community of interest" without paying toll charges, Johnson said. Under the proposal, East Jordan users could place calls to Boyne City and Charlevoix without the levy of a toll charge. Likewise, users in those communities could call East Jordan without paying such additional charge.

Pointing out the new service would open up an entirely new opportunity for telephone users of this community, Johnson said the proposal recognizes the war and postwar trend toward commuting between nearby communities for employment, trade, and recreation.

"The need for liberalizing calling privileges between exchanges with the same community of interest has been evidenced by numerous requests for enlarging exchange boundaries and petitions from many organizations asking that service to the larger centers be included in local service charges," Johnson said. "They also have been substantiated by statewide studies of the use by our customers of short-haul toll service to nearby communities. It is indicated that telephone users generally are willing to pay higher exchange rates in return for wider calling area."

The company is proposing a reclassification of outstate exchange area nto 8 groups, depending upon the number of main-station telephones (exclusive of extensions) in the extended-calling area. Those groups range from calling areas with 800 or fewer main telephones to those with 50,001 to 100,000 main stations. The present classification of 7 groups does not apply to extended calling areas and embraces exchanges with only 10,000 or fewer main telephones.

Johnson pointed out that, under the new proposal, the East Jordan calling area would be in a classification with those of 1,601 to 3,000 main stations, the extended area here having 2,409 main telephones. In the same classification are such extended areas as will be associated with the Gladwin, Mackinaw City, Manistee, Cheboygan, and Leroy exchanges.

Under the company's proposal, monthly residence rates here would be increased as follows:

Individual-line flat-rate service, from present rate of $1.75 to proposed new rate of $2.75; 2-party flat-rate, from $1.65 to $2.25; 4-party-line flat-rate, from $1.45 to $2; and rural-line residence service, from $1.50 to $2.

Proposed increases for business services are: Individual-line flat-rate, from $2.50 to $5 a month; 2-party flat-rate, from $2 to $4; and rural-line business service from $2.25 to $3.25 a month. The basic rate for private branch exchange trunk service would be increased to 150 per cent of the monthly charge for individual line flat-rate business service compared with the present rate which is 120 per cent of such charge.

Johnson emphasized that the company will seek to clear up rate inequities as between communities of comparable telephone development. He pointed out that a Commission order of 1942, while dissolving such inequities in exchanges where charges were above the levels fixed in the rate schedule at the time, made no increase in exchanges where rates were below such levels. East Jordan users, he added, have been paying rates for years that are on the low side when the telephone development and calling opportunity within the exchange are taken into consideration.

Of the $10,400,000 rate increase sought by the company, $3,051,000 would apply in upward local service rate adjustments outstate; $2,655,000 in Detroit; $408,000 in Detroit suburban exchanges; $2,902,000 in increased charges for long distance calls within the state; and an increase of $1,384,000 in miscellaneous service items such as switching and equipment charges.

Proposed changes in the intrastate long distance rate schedule are:

1. An increase of 5 cents over present charges for distances between 10 and 112 miles. 2. Reduction in the initial calling period (before overtime charges) from the present 5 minutes to 3 minutes for distances from 11 to 30 miles on which charges range from 15 to 25 cents a message. 3. An increase in overtime charges from the present ¼ to 1/3 of the initial period rate. 4. Revision of the discount on night and Sunday rates from the present 35 per cent to 20 per cent under the day rates. 5. Increase in the minimum differential in person-to-person rates over station-to-station charges from the present 35 per cent to 40 per cent.

Johnson said the company, in asking for increases in long distance rates, realized that the Commission several years ago ordered intrastate rates at that time to conform to interstate levels for comparable distances. He pointed out, however, that there is now a differential on intrastate rates in most other states in the recognition that the long distance service within the state should contribute more of its share in meeting the overall costs of providing telephone service.

"If intrastate rates are not increased," he emphasized, "it will be necessary to increase the rates for local exchange service still higher. Such an alternative would place an unfair share of the burden on that type of service, many users of which would be the least able to pay."

Johnson said the new rates "are no higher than necessary to provide good service to all who want it. The increases are necessary to permit the company to catch up with rising costs of doing business. In general, telephone rates of today are the same as in 1937, or even lower, although the cost of almost everything used in providing telephone service has risen sharply.

"Wage costs are now four times what they were 10 years ago with postwar wage adjustments alone boosting such costs by $11,000,000 a year. Taxes have more than doubled since 1937. The extent to which the cost of materials and supplies has advanced is indicated, in part, by an inerease in our 5-year postwar construction program from an original estimate of $150,000,000 to a present outlook of $220,000,000.

"Revenues, of course, have gone up too — in fact 2½ times the amount in 1937. But the total of all our costs has trebled in the same period. As a result, Michigan Bell's return on investment has slipped more than a third under the level of 10 years ago.

"The return on investment today is on a dangerous downward trend. This trend must be arrested and reversed so that the company will continue to be a sound financial institution, able to attract the additional money that is needed from investors for expanding and improving the service."

Our Ball Team Continues Winning

DEFEAT HILLMAN 9 TO 1 IN SUNDAY'S CONTEST

East Jordan proved again that the habit of winning ball games is a steady one, as they trimmed Hillman 9-1 Sunday. The "Merchants" played heads-up ball all the way and gave Chuck Saxton plenty of support in the field and at the bat.

Three Hillman pitchers yielded 10 hits and 9 walks while their team mates made 3 errors, Chuck allowed 4 hits, hit 2 men, and struck out 6. East Jordan was guilty of 2 errors.

The locals meet Hillman again tonight (Thursday) at Gaylord at 5 o'clock. This game is a play-off to decide who is to be first round champions, East Jordan or Hillman. A large number of fans followed the local team to Hillman Sunday, so it is expected that a large crowd will be on hand tonight.

Batteries for Sunday's game were: Hillman: Hunt, Mieceles, and McDonald pitching, McDonald and Mieceles catching; For East Jordan, C. Saxton pitching, Crowell catching. Dale Gee, Spin Cihak, and Crowell each got two hits.

East Jordan mets Gaylord at Gaylord Sunday.

Let's Keep It Clean

At considerable cost, the city has re-decorated the City Building including the rest rooms.

These were in a bad state, owing to the public's misuse of same. It is hoped that the public will use the rest rooms the same as they would in their own homes.

It is rather harsh, but the continued misuse of these rooms, both ladies and mens, will lead to prosecution of the offenders, and please remeber that parents are responsible for the acts of their children.

So, please, Let's Keep 'Em Clean.

Annual Farm Bureau Picnic

EVENT HELD AT EASTPORT ON JULY 31ST.

The annual picnic of the Antrim County Farm Bureau was held jointly with Charlevoix County at Eastport Park on July 31st. A large crowd attended with each county well represented. Larry Brandon, Secretary of the Indiana Farm Bureau was the speaker of the day. His talk was on the necessity of organization for agriculture so that farmers will be able to get fair prices for their merchandise. He brought out the fact that agriculture is the backbone of the nation and that if we do not get the value for our products that we are entitled to, our young people will have to seek their livedihood elsewhere. With the passing of the family farm, will go one of the things that made America great.

A ball game was one of the features of the day. Games were held in the afternoon for the young fry and provided one of the amusing sights we have seen. Besides the speaker the program consisted of music by Jay Hudge and his wife, songs by a very good quartet and a duet by Mrs. Boss and Mrs. Moore. The refereshment stand operated by the Junior Farm Bureau of Charlevoix County was well patronized. A plentiful basket lunch was served at noon with coffee and cream donated by the Farm Bureau.

Ragweed Control Helps State Hay Fever Sufferers

Those sneezy hay fever days may be on the way out for some people thanks to experiments by Dr. B. H. Grigsby, Michigan State college botany specialist.

During the summer and fall, many areas in Michigan are covered with a heavy growth of ragweed which produces a large amount of pollen. This pollen is airborne and causes hay fever in five to ten percent of the population.

Ragweed areas, however, usually are found on fallow lands, roadsides, and other uncultivated areas where a cover of vegetation is needed to prevent soil erosion. A program of weed control which reduces the pollen production in these areas and yet retains the soil-holding properties of the native vegetation is desirable. In his experiments, recently reported in the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station Quarterly Bulletin, Dr. Grigsby found that 2, 4-D fitted the need for this kind of weed control and could be used at reasonable cost.

In the experiments, ragweed was killed by a single application of 2,-4-D at a concentration of 1 part of the weed killer to 1000 parts of water. Pollen production by old plants was stopped, but plants were not immediately killed, by spraying with a concentration of 1 part of weed killer per 2,000 parts of water. No pollen was formed at all when plants were sprayed with a 1 part of weed killer per 4,000 parts water at the stage of growth just before flowering.

St. Joseph School Alumni To Hold Picnic, Aug. 17th

With the decline of the lumbering industry in our city, it was natural that many of our young people as they attained adulthood, should leave East Jordan. Their parents followed them when they were settled in new localities and the population was depleted considerably. However, we find increasing evidence as time goes on that the string of remembrances of childhood pull very strongly on these people who have left our vicinity.

Last year it happed that a large group of East Jordan residents who had at some time or other attended St. Joseph's school, happened to be visiting here. They formed an organization known as the St. Joseph'sAlumni, elected officers and agreed to have a similar reunion each summer. For 1947 the reunion date has been set for August 17th at the Tourist Park. Each is to bring his own basket and it will be a picnic affair. After the festivities there will be a meeting to determine or settle any busines that has or might arrive. Mrs. Ole Hegerberg, the secretary, one of our residents has all particulars and anyone requiring any further information may contact her. Frank Nachazel is the President and he and Mrs. Hegerberg spark plug the association.

ANTRIM BOYS AND GIRLS TO STATE 4-H SHOW

Four Antrim County boys and girls will go to the State 4-H Club Show to be held at Michigan State College, East Lansing, August 25 through 28. These boys and girls have won the right through achievements at the Gaylord State Club Camp just concluded.

Richard Wieland of Ellsworth, was chosen to represent all the boys in the Gaylord Camp area through the achievement booth contest. Only four boys in Michigan will participate in this contest at the State show. Two of the four boys will be chosen to represent all Michigan 4-H boys at the National 4-H Club Encampment to be held in Washington, D. C., next June. Victor Schuler of Rapid City was the last Antrim County boy to win this award, Victor having won in 1942. Richard also outscored all other individuals in the Dairy Judging Contest and will compete in the Dairy Judging Contest at the State show in an effort to win a place on the 4-H Dairy Judging team.

Louise Noecker of Bellaire was chosen to represent the girls in the style review. She will compete with other girls in the State show to represent Michigan girls at the National 4-H Club Congress to be held in Chicago the last of November.

Richard Holmes and David MacGregor, both of Alba, will represent the district in Conservation work through their Conservation demonstration, as will Charlene Kelly of Bellaire who will also go to East Lansing with her garden demonstration.

4-H LIVESTOCK SHOW TO BE HELD NEXT WEDNESDAY

The eighth annual Antrim County 4-H Livestock Show will be held at Craven Park, Bellaire, next Wednesday, August 13. Judging will begin at 10 a. m. Mr. George S. MacIntyre, Deputy Director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture will be the judge. Mr. MacIntyre is known throughout Michigan for his dairy judging ability.

This year's show runs into unexpected competition because of the late cherry harvest. However, due to many county and district fairs being held starting the next week, no other satisfactory date could be secured.

The public is invited to attend this annual event and to support the work of our boys and girls.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Hughes Inquiry Intrigues Nation; President Truman's Mother Dies; Congress Adjourns First Session

Released by Western Newspaper Union

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

THE SCANDAL:
Buffoonery?

Wherever the truth lay in the mid-summer ruckus concerning Howard Hughes and his 40 million dollars was a great story for hot weather reading and the nation's press was worrying it with the ferocious glee of a puppy at a slipper.

As a story it had everything. The senate war investigating committee started out to make a few inquiries into the awarding of multi-million dollar plane building contracts to Hughes, glamorous sportsman, millionnaire and playboy.

From then on it was like shaking a tree loaded with ripe figs. Names kept plunging into print—bigger names every day. Did Hughes try putting on a little gentle pressure through the medium of great, gay, expensive parties for Washington bigwigs?

Of course, there had to be girls at the parties; that was the real press-stopper. Breath-taking models and movie stars, none of whom apparently had expanded her wardrobe beyond a two-piece swim suit, received such windfalls of publicity as they had never before conceived.

The names resounded. Elliott Roosevelt was prominent. Julius Krug had been at the parties, as had Gov. Mon Wallgren of Washington, according to testimony. Henry Kaiser, as Hughes' former partner, dragged into the affair in connection with an 18 million dollar flying boat that never flew. Sen. Owen Brewster (Rep., Me.), member of the investigating committee, stuck out his neck in criticizing Hughes, whereat Hughes countered with a rabbit punch, charging that Brewster had bummed a couple of free plane rides off him.

But where was the truth? Was it buffoonery or skulduggery at the crossroads? For the time being, no one seemed to know. No one except members of the war investigating committee seemed to care much.

It was too good a story.

WHAT WAR?
No Brigade

There never was an "international brigade" to take part in the recent guerrilla invasion of northern-Greece as was so alarmingly reported by Greek government officials.

That is the opinion expressed by observers returning from tours of the rugged Albanian-Greek frontier region where the hostilities developed. The international brigade, they say, appeared to be nothing but the "mythical product of a Balkan propaganda war of nerves."

Evidence was found that indicated that the guerrillas were armed and supplied by Albanians and Yugoslavians, but of the "brigade" itself there was no trace.

The brigade story, which gave rise to a minor condition of hysteria among the Greeks, probably was fostered by guerrilla leaders who urged their men on with assurances that a brigade of troops was waiting in the rear to back up their assault on Greek lines.

REQUIESCAT:
Martha Truman

In the bedroom of her cream-colored cottage at Grandview, Mo., death finally came to Mrs. Martha Ellen Truman in her 94th year.

Perhaps, although not much was said about it, many Americans had had it in the backs of their minds, ever since Mrs. Truman fractured her hip last February, that her life was drawing out into a fine thread.

It was just last May that she had had a bad spell, when it was nip-and-tuck for more than a week. But with her children at her side to help her, she had rallied. She gained strength and went on with her life.

Then, as is often the way after 94 years, Martha Ellen Truman was able to go no farther. She slipped into unconsciousness and then into death. At her side were her daughter, Mary Jane, and a son, J. Vivian. Another son was on his way to her, flying from Washington.

Mrs. Truman did not lie in state. There was no lavish display of flowers. A few old and trusted friends came to pay their last respects. Her funeral was simple and she was put to rest under a shaded bank beside her husband, John Anderson Truman, who died in 1914.

Martha Truman was in no respect different from millions of other American mothers, nor did she wish to be. She was no greater in her achievements, no greater in her devotion to her family than were they. But she could say this:

"My son, Harry, is President of the United States."

More Lincoln Lore

Attendant with the opening of the last of Abraham Lincoln's documents in the library of congress was disclosure of this bust of the emancipator, made in Chicago in 1860 by Leonard W. Volk before Lincoln was nominated for the presidency. Shown here is Henry C. Roberts of New York, owner of the bust, who said it was made originally for the brother of Stephen Douglas, Lincoln's political rival.

VACATION:
Congress Quits

Amid a confused welter of flaring political temperaments, back-slapping and singing, the 80th congress brought its frenetic first session to a close and immediately began looking forward to blistering issues which will face it when it reconvenes on January 2.

Awaiting the attention of the second session with all the equanimity of a powder keg will be the questions of personal income tax reduction and new billions for foreign relief.

Adjournment, which came only after congress had worked on a Sunday for the first time in modern history, followed a seven-month session that saw the legislators:

1. Enact the Taft-Hartley labor law over President Truman's veto.

2. Try doggedly but unsuccessfully to achieve passage of two income tax-cutting bills, both of which were effectively vetoed.

3. Appropriate 1.4 billion dollars for foreign aid.

4. Pass a bill for unification of the armed services and subsequently approve nomination of James V. Forrestal, now secretary of the navy, as the nation's first secretary of defense.

In the meantime, about half the congressmen will spend the time until January 2 working in committees to investigate such things as the housing shortage, high prices and the nation's ability to give further material assistance.

DEFENSE:
Inexpensive

James Forrestal, nation's first secretary of defense under the new armed forces unification act, pledged that reorganization of the army, navy and air force will be carried out as inexpensively as possible.

Although he foretold of eventual savings as a result of unification, Forrestal stressed that immediate economies are "entirely conjectural" and that results would not be "immediate or miraculous." He said he will attempt to keep his administrative staff small and expenses down.

DULL RUMBLE:
Death Came Along

"Death came along and hit those men so fast they never knew it. You could tell. We saw their bodies. They were lying in every kind of shape you can imagine."

Time had been exercising its soporific effect. Americans, red daily with fresh, exciting news to titillate their interest, had virtually forgotten the Centralia, Ill., mine explosion which had killed 111 men last March 25.

Then time ran out with a dull rumble. Again it was Illinois. Again it was a mine explosion—the Old Ben coal mine No. 8 at West Frankfort. Twenty-seven miners died instantaneously, while 170 of their fellow-workers escaped through air shafts.

Cause of the disaster was reported as an accumulation of gas in a nonproducing section of the West Frankfort pit. But at the cost of 27 lives, the tragedy—occurring four months, almost to the day, after the Centralia debacle—apparently was not going to be written off with such technical ease.

Gov. Dwight Green of Illinois canceled a vacation to visit the scene of the downstate explosion. Political repercussions of the state's second major mine disaster of the year began echoing through the Illinois atmosphere.

BOX SCORE

Most reliable estimates of the current size of the Red army range upwards of three million men. U. S. army counts its manpower at a little less than a million.

MUSCLES:
The Paladin

Russia's army is, at present, bigger than the armies of all other nations combined, Gen. Jacob L. Devers intimated in an address before a soldiers' and sailors' reunion at Salem, Ill.

In his intimation, the chief of U. S. army ground forces, used a device that is becoming ever more popular among high officials in this country—that of pointing obliquely in the direction of Moscow but not mentioning the Soviet Union by name.

General Devers deplored the actions of a group "which insists that we have no national security whatever." Then he said:

"They suggest that we place ourselves, and the smaller free nations which look to us for strength and guidance, completely at the mercy of their particular political paladin—who, by odd coincidence, maintains an army larger than all the other armies of the world combined."

The "paladin" (a legendary knight or hero), everyone understood, was Russia.

Last Man Out

Walter Hartwich, former major of the Nazi wehrmacht, was the last German prisoner of war held by Americans to be released from guarded area at Dachau, Germany. He was given new clothes and food rations for three days.

HISTORY:
Lincoln's Papers

The exalted figure of Abraham Lincoln stood firm and unsmirched in American history after the last collection of his personal papers to be made public was taken from a safe in the library of congress where they had been stored since the death of Lincoln's son, Robert, 21 years ago.

Eager students, historians and scholars looked on as Luther H. Evans, congressional librarian, delved into the collection of some 15,000 to 20,000 documents, bound into 194 volumes.

As studies of the mass of material were begun, it became evident that no startling new events in the political career or private life of the Civil war president would be revealed. Biggest value of the papers probably will be in bridging a few gaps in history.

Budget Millennium

After a lapse of 17 years the federal government again closed a fiscal year with a budget surplus. An excess of 754 million dollars on budget rolls at the end of the 1947 fiscal year terminated a period of budget deficits dating back to 1930, according to a survey prepared by the National Industrial Conference board. President Truman had estimated last April, however, that the surplus would be approximately 2.25 billion dollars.

Something New in Round-the-World Flights

Attempting a feat never before tried in an airplane of less than 575 horsepower, two modern Magellans took off from New York to begin the first leg of a round-the-world flight in two Piper Cub cruisers.

George Truman, veteran pilot of 19 years' experience, and Clifford V. Evans Jr., former AAF B-25 pilot, are flying the two 100-horsepower sport planes on the unique, globe-circling jaunt.

Not aiming at any speed records, Evans and Truman expect the flight to take from 30 to 45 days. They will fly in formation in order to be able to "chaperone" each other for added safety in case one of the planes should be forced down in an isolated spot. The planes will carry a total capacity of 138 gallons of gasoline for a 27-hour, 2,600 mile cruising range at a speed of 95 miles per hour.

Purity of Heart and Life

LESSON TEXT FOR AUGUST 10—Proverbs 2:1-5, 10-17; 4:14-27; 5:1-4; 31:10-12; James 1:13-15.

MEMORY SELECTION—Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.—Proverbs 4:23.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by p rmission.

By WILLIAM CULBERTSON, D. D.
Of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

IT IS well for us to face squarely such a topic as the one assigned. It is particularly necessary to review the biblical standards with regard to holiness of life, since the day in which we live is one of lowered conceptions.

You will probably remember the story of the celebrated artist who was renowned because of his ability to put on canvas colors of accurate hue and great beauty. His secret was that he kept a number of valuable gems of all colors. He would turn frequently from his painting to study the color of these gems.

We need to spend time with the precious gems of the Word of God that we may clearly understand how he would have us live.

I. True Wisdom Involves the Fear of Jehovah (Prov. 2:1-5).

IN THE opening chapters of Proverbs, Wisdom is personified. Anyone who believes in Jesus Christ cannot help understanding something of his relationship to wisdom. In him "are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge" (Col. 2:3). To those of us who trust him, he has been made unto us wisdom (I Cor. 1:30).

In this passage in Proverbs the point is that if we observe his commandments, if we incline our ears unto wisdom, if we apply our hearts to understanding, if we long for discernment, as earnestly as we would seek for silver and hidden treasures, we shall understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God.

God will meet every individual who really wants to know him. Said our Lord, "If any man willeth to do his will, he shall know . . ." (John 7:17).

II. True Wisdom Involves Holiness of Life (Prov. 2:10-17; 4:14-17; 5:1-4).

TO truly know God is, of course, to be spared the heartache which results from being deceived by sin and Satan. When wisdom enters the heart, the result is discretion and understanding (Prov. 2:10, 11). Thus God delivers us from the way of evil and from men that speak evil things (v. 12).

Attention should be given to the description of these evil men in verses 12-15: they speak perverse things; they forsake the paths of uprightness; they walk in the ways of darkness; they rejoice to do evil; they delight in the perverseness of evil; their paths are crooked and wayward.

Deliverance from the strange woman is likewise vouchsafed, as we have true wisdom. The description of these women is informative—flattering, forgetful of both friends and God; their lips drop honey, their mouths are smoother than oil.

Notice the conclusion of the matter: In the end they are bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword, their feet go down to death, and their steps take hold on Sheol.

How much we need God's wisdom in this world. It is easy to be deceived.

III. True Wisdom Means Peace at the End (Prov. 4:18-27).

TO walk with God, to walk in wisdom, is indeed as the dawning light, shining more and more unto the perfect day. If there were no other reward for living for God (and there are many, many others), the benediction at eventide would be enough to cause us to think seriously before we flout the ways of God.

IV. A Representative of True Wisdom (Prov. 31:10-12).

THIS passage describes the wise woman. She is indeed to be extolled. The worthy woman, the woman who loves God, the woman who is therefore wise, is in price far above rubies.

V. Sin's History (James 1:13-15).

THE wise man, the man who will be pure in heart and life, ought to understand something of the history of sin in his individual life.

Temptation here refers undoubtedly to a solicitation to evil. God does make trial of men (Gen. 22:1), but he does not dangle before them that which is evil in itself.

The history of personal evil is, that because of our lust we are enticed. Thus when lust has conceived (that is to say, we have succumbed to the enticement), sin is born, and sin, when it is finished—but it is never finished; it goes on and on; no power on earth can arrest it — bringeth forth death.

PENINSULA...
(Edited by Mrs. E. Hayden)

Mrs. Ann McClure of Benton Harbor spent from Saturday to Thursday with her old friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Russell of Ridgeway farms. Mrs. Russell, who has been confined to the house for 14 weeks with an unusual and very uncomfortable illness, took two short rides with Mrs. McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Hayden and 6 younger children of Pleasant View farm returned from a trip to Dearborn whee they visited the S. A. Hayden family Monday evening, and spent Tuesday with Msr. Hayden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beyer near Horton Bay.

Robert Hayden, who has been working in Grand Rapids, came to Orchard Hill July 25 to help with the haying. It was finished Aug. 2.

Fred Sherman, our new neighbor, on what us old timers know as the John Sandford place, but more recently the White cherry orchard, was the first to begin picking his cherries, beginning Wednesday and finishing Saturday, having about 30 tons.

Cherry picking will begin August 4 in earnest.

Mrs. John Looze and two children returned to the Willow Brook dairy farm Saturday after a four days visit to Dearborn. She brought her mother, Mrs. Charles Caruthers, home with her for a visit.

Mrs. Byrel Bennett Riley and two childen of near Kalkaska is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Bennett and picking cherries. Mr. Riley is still a patient in the Veteran's Hospital.

Mr. G. C. Ferris went up Indian River way Friday, huckleberrying, and found the berries all frozen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stanek of "up the Jordan" were business callers on the Peninsula, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Lydia Beyer Hawkins and three daughters and infant son of Dolton are staying with the F. K. Hayden family at Pleasant View farm and picking cherries.

Saturday evening the F. K. Haydens and their guests, Mrs. Lydia Hawkins and four children, spent Saturday evening with the Richard Beyer's near Horton Bay. Those there were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beye and son Heman, M. and Mrs. Clarence Foltz and son Clarence Michael of Horton Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Beyer, East Jordan; Mr. and Mrs. Birdie Hawkins Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Bidie Hawkins Jr, Horton Bay; Mr. "Bub" Hawkins and two sons of Dolton; and Miss Arlene Hayden and Kenneth Staley of Charlevoix, 26 in all. Sunday the same bunch were at Pleasant View farm picking cherries in the Fred Sherman Orchard. Mrs. F. K. Hayden served ice cream and cake to the bunch. Bub Hawkins and sons returned to Dolton, U. P., Sunday after, but Mrs. Hawkins and girls will remain for the duration of cherry picking.

Earl Loomis and daughter, Mrs. Jack Barton and others of Detroit came Saturday to the Ray Loomis home, Gravel Hill, north side, where Mrs. Caroline Loomis (Earl and Ray Loomis' mother) is real sick. Mrs. Eliza Scott of Mountain Dist. is caring for the invalid while Mrs. Ray Loomis is employed at the canning factory in East Jordan.

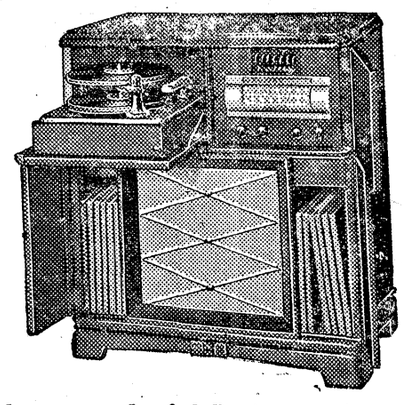

Haying is just about finished on the Peninsula, corn is tasseling out and spring beans are right on. Is this a busy community?

The weather is still very dry, waiting for the slow ones to finish their haying.

Mrs. Fred Sherman was called to Dearborn Wednesday by the death of her brother. She returned Sunday.

Atomic energy—radio—the wheel—airplane—electricity—automobile—steam engine—telephone—printing press—take your pick. What do you think is the greatest invention ever made?

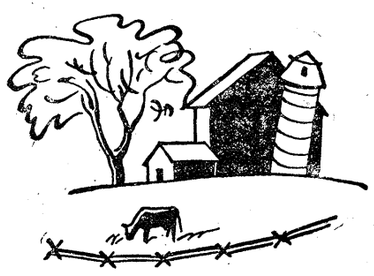

Certainly each is important, and each has contributed generously to our way of life. But the American public, in Dr. Gallup's recent coast-to-coast survey, voted electricity the most important invention of all time!

It's hard to imagine our type of civilization without electricity. We depend on it for so many things—in our homes—in business and industry—in transportation and communication. The hat on your head—the food on your table—the newspaper on your doorstep—your favorite radio show—each depends directly on electricity.

Yet American families spend just about 1¢ out of every budget dollar for their electric service. Because electricity does so much for so little is, perhaps, the main reason why Americans have voted it the most important invention of all inventions.

MICHIGAN
Believes in Promoting Rural Health

Rural health is a great deal more than a discussion topic to the medical doctors of Michigan — it is a vital program that has their fullest support. This is evidenced in many ways, as will be brought out at the Michigan Rural Health Conference which is to be held at Michigan State College, September 18-19. Being one of the sponsors, Michigan doctors of medicine will utilize this Conference to search out the further avenues in which they can most practically enlarge their health services in Michigan's rural areas. This concern of organized medicine, and many other health organizations, with the health improvement of all the people of the State is one of the reasons why Michigan leads the way in health progress.
